

Directions from Windhoek To Etosha Trading Post

(via Okahandja, Otjiwarongo & Outjo)

There are a number of routes to follow from Windhoek to the Etosha Trading Post. The most direct route with the best road surfaces is given here.

Total Distance : 410 Kilometres

Average Duration : ±5,5 Hours

Road Surfaces : Asphalt – 410 kms

Road Legend :

B = Major Route (Asphalt)

C = Minor Road (Asphalt)

- Leave Windhoek via the B1 Western Bypass (Sam Nujoma Drive).
- Travel on the B1 for about 71 kilometres to reach Okahandja. At the first entrance to Okahandja, there is a petrol station, restaurant and shop with a huge craft-market across the road that is quite popular among tourists.
- Continue for another 5 kilometres West on the B1 and turn right to keep on the B1 towards Otjiwarongo.
- After 173 kilometres Otjiwarongo will be entered. Continue in a Northern direction on the B1 for 2,4 kilometres (passing a service stations on the left-hand side and a shopping centre (with a Spar and Wimpy) on the right-hand side). Turn left onto C38 (Dr Libertine Amathila Avenue) towards Outjo. (Okaukuejo / Etosha)
- Travel for 73 kilometres to Outjo. Continue into Outjo on the C38 for another 1,5 kilometres , over 3-way stop and turn left at the T-junction to stay on the C38 (Hage Geingob Avenue).
- When exiting Outjo, follow the C38 towards Etosha National Park.
- After 90 kilometres the Etosha Trading Post entrance gate will be on your right-hand side. (You will see the tower and red roof of our Etosha Trading Post from a distance when approaching. Also look out for our signage and signage indicating that Okaukuejo is nearing – The entrance to Etosha Trading Post is situated 6.5 kilometres from the Andersson gate of Etosha National Park on the C38.)

Self-Drives To Etosha Trading Post

Please switch on your headlights whilst traveling in Namibia – it is compulsory on national roads.

The roads within Namibia are first class by African standards with nearly 4500 kilometres of good tarred roads and an extensive network of district gravel roads. Driving is done on the left-hand side of the road with the speed limit being 120km per hour on major and minor routes outside of city limits and 60km per hour within city limits. It is highly recommended that a maximum speed of 80km per hour NOT be exceeded when travelling on ANY gravel or sand roads. The wearing of seat belts is compulsory for all vehicle occupants.

Wildlife wandering on roads is a special driving hazard in Namibia, especially at night. An encounter at high speeds with antelope or cattle can be fatal. The salt-surfaced roads at the coast can also be deceptively www.etosha-tradingpost.com

GPS: S 19°23' 16.71" E 15°56' 14.258" | For emergencies, please contact us on: +264 67 312 552 dangerous, especially when they have been made slick by morning or evening mist. Most major roads are undivided with one lane in each direction. Drivers should remain alert for passing vehicles and exercise caution when passing slow moving vehicles.

Driving under the influence of alcohol is illegal in Namibia. A charge of culpable homicide may be made against a driver involved in an accident resulting in death.

Flashing of high beams and similar signals could mean anything from a friendly greeting to a warning. When encountering a motorcade, motorists are encouraged to make way immediately and follow promptly any instructions given by the officials present.

Roadside assistance and emergency medical services outside of Windhoek may be unreliable or non-existent. Assistance on main roads that link Namibia's larger towns, however, is generally good due to quality cellphone networks. Emergency services contact numbers vary from town to town. The Namibian telephone directory has a list of emergency contact numbers at the beginning of each town listing.